ABOUT

Engaged in the field of Design for 10 years and working as professional for 3 years, I stand out for my skills in editorial design, visual identity and motion design. My creativity and my expertise come from my rich multicultural graphic and artistic experiences.

In the workplace, I'm a dedicated team member willing to share and listen. During a group project, I know how to play my part by bringing my cooperation and communication skills to the fore. Working independently also enables me to demonstrate my creativity as well as my time management and critical thinking abilities.
